CHANGES IN STATE BANKS: VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATIONS AND MERGERS.

Boyd State Bank, Boyd, went into voluntary liquidation on January 8, 1929, paying 100% to depositors immediately.

Gallatin Gateway State Bank, Gallatin Gateway, went into voluntary liquidation on January 12, 1929, paying 100% to depositors immediately.

First National Bank of Chinook purchased assets and assumed deposits of Lohman State Bank, Chinook, on February 9, 1929.

NEW DEPOSITARY ACT.

Chapter 49 of the 1929 Session Laws of Montana, amending Chapter 134 of the 1927 Session Laws and former statutes, became the new depositary act upon being approved by the Governor on March 1, 1929. Inasmuch as it gives to the banks of the State a much wider scope in the collateral pledged to secure county, city, or town funds, and believing this to be of interest to all Montana banks, we take this means of furnishing a complete list of the acceptable collateral, viz:

Bonds of surety companies authorized to do business in the State;

Bonds guaranteed directly or indirectly by such companies;

Bonds and securities of the United States Government and its dependents;

Bonds and warrants of the State of Montana, or of any county, city, or school district of Montana;

Federal Land Bank bonds;

Bonds of other states and counties of other states;

Bonds of the Dominion of Canada and Canadian provinces;

Other Canadian bonds guaranteed by the Canadian Government or provinces thereof;

Bonds issued in the United States which are quoted on the New York market at not to exceed 90% of such market quotation;

Personal bonds as provided in former depositary acts, except that this law prohibits treasurers from accepting personal bonds for any new or additional deposit accounts and provides in addition that after December 31, 1930 personal bonds shall not be considered as acceptable security;

In the manner authorized by previous acts, treasurers may accept trustees' receipts in lieu of the actual securities;

Deposits shall be apportioned ratably among the banks of the county according to capital and surplus;

All warrants and other negotiable securities must be properly assigned or endorsed in blank.

RIGHT OF CONTINUAL SUCCESSION

A portion of Section 6, Chapter 89, Montana Session Laws of 1927, which is the banking code, reads as follows:

> ''Provided, that any bank, trust company or investment company now existing, may at any time, within the period limited for its duration, elect to avail itself of the right of continual succession herein given, by filing its intention so to do in the office of the County Clerk and Recorder of the County wherein such corporation is located and a copy thereof with the Secretary of State, by paying the legal filing fees therefor. No such corporation shall be allowed to increase its capital stock by such filing without complying with the provisions of this Act and paying the legal filing fees as in such cases otherwise provided.''

Fees charged by the Secretary of State in such cases are:

For issuing each certificate of continuance of corporate existence, Ten Dollars.

For recording and filing each certificate of continuance of corporate existence, the following amounts shall be charged:

Amounts up to $100,000.00, fifty cents per thousand dollars.

Additional from $100,000.00 to $250,000,00, forty cents per thousand dollars.

Additional from $250,000.00 to $500,000.00, thirty cents per thousand dollars.

Additional from $500,000.00 to $1,000,000.00, twenty cents per thousand dollars.

Additional over $1,000,000.00, ten cents per thousand dollars.

The procedure to be followed for obtaining perpetual charters is to have a resolution adopted by the directors indicating their election to avail themselves of the right of continual succession, and to have the stockholders adopt a similar resolution. Certificates including these resolutions should be drawn up in quadruplicate, verified and attested by the Chairman and Secretary of the meeting, and after approval by this department one copy should be filed with the Clerk and Recorder of the County in which the bank is located; one copy filed with the Secretary of State; one copy with this department; and one copy retained in the files of the bank.

Inasmuch as the charters of a number of state banks will expire in the near future it is suggested that all who desire to take advantage of the right of continual succession immediately do so through the procedure herein outlined.
